Donn D’Alessio Student Award

This award, established to honor past Department Chair, Donn D’Alessio, and to celebrate his contributions to the Department, will be given to one student nominated and elected by fellow students. The prize will be a book selected by the winner (up to $200) and will be awarded at the Spring Graduation celebration. To be selected a student must demonstrate:

1. Outstanding activities indicative of good citizenship as a member of this department’s student, faculty and academic staff community.

2. A history of excellence in research and academics, and of active sharing of this knowledge base with fellow students through formal and informal activities.

3. Active involvement in student affairs and the PHS Student Organization.

Current students and students who graduated during the winter term are eligible for nomination. Both faculty and students can nominate a student. Nominations consist of a one page, typed statement outlining the nominee’s accomplishments and are submitted to Quinn Fullenkamp quinn.fullenkamp@wisc.edu.

All students are eligible to vote on the nominees. The winner of the award is announced at the Graduation celebration.
