

W

GLOBAL HEALTH TUESDAY

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM COP26 HOW THE U.N. CLIMATE TALKS IMPACT EVERYONE

- Moderator: Jonathan Patz, M.D., MPH, Director, UW-Madison Global Health Institute
- Sumudu Atapattu, LL.M., Ph.D., Director, Research Centers, UW Law School
- Dekila Chungyalpa, Director, Loka Initiative, Center for Healthy Minds
- Greg Nemet, Ph.D., Professor, La Follette School of Public Affairs; Lead Author, Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change
- Nova Tebbe, MPA/MPH Student, Energy Analysis and Policy program

The United Nations' Climate Change Conference (COP26) opens October 31 in Glasgow, Scotland. Building on promises made at the Paris conference in 2015, world leaders will gather to accelerate action toward those goals. Panelists will look at what needs to happen to mitigate climate change, what they expect from COP26 and the consequences that could follow.

Register here

LEARN MORE: ghi.wisc.edu

TUESDAY
OCTOBER 26, 2021

4:30-5:30 p.m.

Virtual

Register here